

Outline of Paradise Lost, Book Nine

Courtesy of Prof. Richard F.W. Kroll, UC Irvine

The Poet's introduction: 1-47

(1) SATAN ARRIVES IN THE GARDEN OF EDEN (PROLOGUE)

Satan's arrival and choice of the serpent—48-96

His soliloquy—97-178

He "possesses" the serpent—179-191

(2) ADAM AND EVE AGREE TO WORK SEPARATELY (ACT 1)

Adam and Eve arise in the morning—192-204

Eve's suggestion—205-225

Adam's objection—226-269

Eve—270-289; Adam—291-317; Eve—322-341

Adam's consent—342-375

Eve's last word—376-384

Eve goes off to work alone—385-411

(3) SERPENT PERSUADES EVE TO EAT THE FORBIDDEN FRUIT (ACT 2)

The Serpent finds Eve—412-472

His soliloquy—473-493

He shows himself—494-531

His flattery—532-548

Eve's surprise—549-566

The Serpent's account of the Tree of Knowledge—567-612

Eve's question—613-624

The Serpent's answer—625-630

He leads her to the tree—631-646

Her reaction—647-654

His sarcasm—655-658

Her answer—659-663

Description of the Serpent—664-678

His speech—679-732

Eve is impressed—733-744

She speaks—745-779

She eats—780-794

Her soliloquy—795-833

(4) ADAM EATS THE FORBIDDEN FRUIT (ACT 3)

Adam meets Eve—834-855

Her speech—856-885

His reaction—885-895

His speech—896-959

Her speech—960-989

He eats, "against his better knowledge, not deceived"—990-1016

(5) THE EFFECTS OF SIN ON ADAM AND EVE (ACT 4 OR EPILOGUE)

Adam speaks—1017-1033

The immediate effect—1034-1045

The after-effect—1046-1066

Adam speaks—1067-1098

The fig-leaves and the passions—1099-1133

Adam's reproof—1134-1142

Eve's retort—1143-1161

Adam's recrimination—1162-1186

Conclusion—1187-1189