

TOC for Folger Library's 1623 First Folio

For those who would like to try reading a digitized seventeenth-century print edition of Shakespeare, here are the page numbers for the Folger Library's First Folio Online. Since the pages in the print copy of the Folio edition are not numbered accurately, it's hard to find the plays based on those numbers. So at left below, you will find the numbers of the electronic copy, which are numbered from 1-912. (The parenthetical pages at far right correspond to the print copy.) The genre labels used in the Folio editions don't match today's labels. The Winter's Tale and The Tempest are listed as "comedies," while Cymbeline and Troilus and Cressida are listed as tragedies. For those who would like some help with print conventions in Shakespeare's time, see my guide Reading Elizabethan Print – Folio, etc. \(Drake\).
